This season we like to be kind to each other. The holidays are meant to be a time of celebration, and it takes more than money to buy a house or a tree. EQUALITY IS AN INVENTION OF MAN FACT: At the moment, women in the United States are still earning less than men. They also earn less than men in the same occupations in other countries. IT ISN'T JUST THE LADIES: Mothers are paid less than fathers. Women of color are paid less than whites. Women with and without children are paid less than men with and without children. No one should have to work just to get by. The wage gap is about the absence of the word "equal". You might think that women aren't as smart as men. Or that they can't do a man's job. Or that their brains work differently. It is those myths and stereotypes that create the wage gap. SOME WOMEN DO DO THE LEADERSHIP ROLE
